

Storyboarding Toolkit

Welcome to the Storyboarding for Journalistic Storytelling Toolkit. This resource is designed to support you throughout your training process and beyond. You'll find practical templates, recommended tools, instructional videos, and insightful articles, that might come in handy during a tough day at work.

Templates

Get started with our customizable storyboard templates. These templates will help you structure your stories visually and ensure a clear narrative flow. Click the underlined text below to find the templates on Canva.

Basic Storyboard Template: Ideal for simple projects.

Detailed Storyboard Template: For more complex stories with multiple scenes.

“Interactive” Storyboard Template: Perfect for digital and multimedia stories.

Online Tool Recommendations

Enhance your storyboarding process with these powerful online tools. Each tool offers unique features to help you create professional and effective storyboards. Click the underlined tools below, to explore your options.

Storyboard That: Easy-to-use tool with drag-and-drop functionality.

Canva: Versatile design tool with storyboard templates.

Boords: Professional storyboard creation with collaboration features.

Trello: Great for organizing and planning storyboarding projects.

Videos you will find useful

Expand your knowledge with these instructional videos. Each video provides practical insights and techniques to improve your storyboarding skills.

Storyboarding - Seen mobile journalism

How to Create a Storyboard for Multimedia Journalism

How to draw A-grade storyboards (even if you can't draw!) | Media studies tutorial

Deep-dive: Articles on journalistic storyboarding

Dive deeper into the world of storyboarding with the articles provided below. Each piece offers valuable insights and examples from industry professionals on how versatile storyboards can be during the journalistic process.

How a business reporter approached a story about sex-content influencers

(Very) young audiences: How a magazine uses comics to tell the news to French kids

How to produce data-based stories

To keep audiences engaged, journalists need to master multimedia storytelling

Thank you for using the Storyboarding for Journalistic Storytelling Toolkit. We hope these resources empower you to create impactful, engaging, and well-organized stories. Happy storyboarding!